

今月の御聖訓

2017年8月

Gyogaku no nidō wo hagemi sōrō beshi. Gyogaku tae naba buppō wa aru bekarazu.
行学の二道をはげみ候べし。行学たへなば仏法はあるべからず。
Waremo itashi hito womo kyōke sōrae. Gyogaku wa shinjin yori okoru beku sōrō.
我もいたし人をも教化候へ。行学は信心よりをこるべく候。
Chikara araba ichimon ikku naritomo katarase tamō beshi.
力あらば一文一句なりともかたらせ給ふべし。

“Shoho jisso-sho”
(諸法実相抄 御書 668頁)

A Passage From Nichiren Daishonin's Writings

August 2017

Strive forth in the two ways of practice and study. If practice and study are neglected, then Buddhism will cease to exist. You should practice for yourself and lead others to this teaching. Both practice and study originate from faith. You must propagate to others with all your might, even if it is only a single sentence or phrase.

(“The True Entity of All Phenomena”; Gosho, p.668)